February 2002, an agreement is reached for establishing a pipeline from the Caspian Sea, Iraq and through Egypt to Europe. Turkey, some European countries and the United States of America, formed partnerships and were the investors. The project was called Nabucco. With the realization of Nabucco, Europe was importing successively 36% gas and 20% of its oil from Russia would end the dependency on Russian oil and gas. The new pipeline from the Caspian Sea and the Middle East, Azerbaijan, Egypt, Iraq and the United Arab Emirates joined in Erzurum, Kurdish town in Turkey and then crosses some former Russian satellite countries, to reach Austria and other European countries.

The project partners in the beginning were Botash (BOTAŞ) from Turkey and OMV of Austria. These two partners at the Vienna summit in February 2002 which soon joined Transgaz of Romania, Hungarian MOL Group and the Bulgarian gas (Bulgargaz) from Bulgaria, established the project Nabucco. Nabucco named from an Opera of Giuseppe Verdi. Five partners celebrated this agreement in Vienna as they were watching the Nabucco Opera. In 2009 Germany was another Nabucco shareholder. In 2010, the contract acknowledged the founders.

Nabucco 3893 -kilometer pipeline, passes Ahiözü near Ankara and Konya in Turkey, where it joins the two other pipelines from Iraq and another branch from Georgian, then will be fed by Tabriz- Ankara pipeline and continue to reach to Europe. 2732 km of the line passes through Turkey and the rest passes through Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary to Austria. Main gas suppliers of Nabucco, will be Iraq / Kurdistan, Azerbaijan, Turkmenistan and Egypt. Iran urged to join the project and promised to supply gas to the partner, but despite the support of Turkey, she is opposed by the European Union and USA. France is among the countries that buy a 9 % stake from Austria, and became shareholders of the consortium.

1. On the opposite, Russia is competing with Nabucco, and constructs a pipeline alternatively named the Russian North (North Stream). This line, launched in 2011, from Russia through the Baltic Sea to Northern Germany, passes Ukraine and Belarus. Thus Ukraine should remain as a satellite Vassal of the Russian Neo-Tesarism. Two new rival blocks, the West. The USA on one side and on the other side Eurasia confronting the Ukraine as the bottleneck of the lines. Thus Ukraine for Europe and USA on one side, and on the other hand for Russia place more than ever has been a crucial transit.

Added to all that Ukraine is a country with a large market, the fourth largest arms export, possessing the rare enriched black soil for farming and having the port of Sevastopol, the Black Sea and the Crimea. Sevastopol and Crimea were annexed to Moscow overnight by a military invention of Russian oligarchs. Ukraine, by having such crucial situation at least should be divided, if not occupied. In the center of the Europe, ruled by Germany, the Reich of post Hitlerism and USA, in rivalry with Eurasia, Ukrainians are being victimized.

The 2002 Pipeline Project, which followed by detachment of USA from cooperation, in 2007 was directed by "south pipeline" and took on a different form.

South pipeline from the Black Sea to the Balkans by shortening the length toward Western Europe was planned. Work on the project progressed, in 2012 and it was predicted that be completed in 2018. The pipeline is estimated to have a capacity of producing 63 billion cubic meters of natural gas per year.

For The geopolitical map of the Russian oligarchs, who have taken over production of energy, weapons, and mineral raw materials for export, Nabucco is an existential threat. Alexander Dugin, the Rasputin Neo tsarist and the political / military and security adviser of Kremlin in Russia, serve as a theorist of war against Nabucco, called for war to crush the Nabucco pipeline project as a means of stopping attempts to decrease European dependency on Russian energy resources.¹

Alexander Dugin known of Turkey is known for his controversial support of the Ergenekon terrorist organization - support he later retracted to distance himself from being affiliated with terror - is in the spotlight again after commenting on the Nabucco natural gas pipeline project.

Thus he was an important figure of the rebuilding of the new Russian Empire as he declared war against Ukraine in 2009 According to Akan Faruk.²

Ergenekon

Ergenekon is the name given to an ultra-nationalist and terrorist military group in Turkey. Retired General Memduh Ünlütürk, who was involved in the anti-communist Ziverbey interrogations following the 1971 coup. Major General Ünlütürk told Mütercimler that Ergenekon was founded with the support of the CIA and the Pentagon.^[3] Mütercimler was detained during the Ergenekon investigation for questioning before being released.[11]

The person whose testimony contributed most to the indictment, Tuncay Güney, described Ergenekon as a junta related to the Turkish Resistance Organization (Turkish: Türk Mukavemet Teşkilatı, TMT) operating in North Cyprus; the TMT was established by founding members of the Counter-Guerrilla.[18] Former North Cyprus President Rauf Denktaş denied any connection of the TMT to Ergenekon.[19]

Based on documents prepared by one of the prosecutors, an article in Sabah says that the alleged organization consists of six cells with the following personnel:[23][24]

- Secret and civil cells liaisons: Veli Küçük and Muzaffer Tekin
- Lobbyists: M. Zekeriya Öztürk, Kemal Keriñsiz, İsmail Yıldız, and Erkut Ersoy
- NGO head: Sevgi Erenerol, Kemal Keriñsiz (assistant)
- Theory, Propaganda, and Disinformation Department head: Dođu Perinçek
- Mafia structuring head: Veli Küçük, Muzaffer Tekin (assistant)
- Underground contacts: Ali Yasak, Sami Hořtan, Semih Tufan Gülaltay, and Sedat Peker
- Terrorist organizations heads: Veli Küçük and Dođu Perinçek
- University structuring: Kemal Yalçın Alemdarođlu, Emin Gürses, Habib Ümit Sayın
- Research and information gathering head: Mehmet Zekeriya Öztürk
- Judicial branch heads: Kemal Keriñsiz, Fuat Turgut, and Nusret Senem

Of those, the structure of only the "Theory" department had been revealed as of September 2008.[⁴][⁵]

When speaking to the Eurasia news portal⁽⁶⁾ Dugin said the Nabucco project aims to bypass Russia as an alternative gas route and must be prevented at all costs, even if that means waging war. "If a military intervention is needed, then it must be done. This is directly relevant to the geopolitics of natural gas, and all means are allowed in geopolitics," he said.

Dugin is strictly in favor of Russian expansionism and nationalism and is closely affiliated with the Kremlin and Russian Military Intelligence. He is a strong proponent of the restoration of the Russian Empire through a partitioning of the former Soviet republics and unification with Russian-speaking territories.

"We have to topple Nabucco and partition Ukraine. Ukraine has to be divided into two vassal states. We have to always be a step ahead of our rivals. If we step back on natural gas, this obliges us to step back in other fields, too. And this is impossible to accept," Dugin opined.⁽⁷⁾

In competition against the Russian global giant "Gazprom" which gripped the industrial bottleneck in Europe, especially in Germany, Nabucco has employed Fischer (Joseph Martin "Joschka" Fischer) to manage the southern pipeline. Thus Mr. Fischer, the former German Foreign Minister and Vice Chancellor of Germany's Green Leaders period of 1997 to 2005, a coalition of Social Democrats, opposed buying gas from Russia and became a consultant Nabucco consortium.

Fischer, known as the "six-figure salaries" and as a consultant and then as president of the South line of the project in junction with «RWE», German partners has been employment. After the failure of Gerhard Schroeder in 2005 as Chancellor of Germany, the former chancellor of the German Social Democratic Parliamentary Elections in Germany by his rival Christian democrat, Fischer's boss was hired by Russian oligarchs to manage the North pipeline. The former Chancellor of Germany was bought by Gazprom, to grant the Northern Pipeline Gazprom (North Stream) to begin flowing. He was supposed to grant flowing of up to 55 billion cubic meters of Russian natural gas to Germany and Europe from the Baltic. This is the largest project pipeline by sea in the world. Gerhard Schroeder headed "Northern Line", and was hired to manage spreading the pipeline to Europe from Germany. Apart from Germany, Netherlands, France, Belgium and England are linked to this pipeline. By lobbying of former Social Democratic chancellor of Germany, France and the Netherlands each purchased a 9 % stake in northern pipeline from Russia.

Germany, with dependency of more than 35 % and Europe with 25 % of its energy needs from Russia are under Damocles' Sword. In other words, if the gas valve is closed, German capitalism would be faced with a crucial crisis, millions of workers would be unemployed, and labor movements would rise. As well, the Russian oligarchs would be poured into the deadly collapse.

Nabucco has Fischer for lobbying and Gazprom, and has hired Gerhard Schroeder as dealer. There is an inherent lack of ethics and instability in treacherous capitalists and political leaders that would in an instant, turn on each other. The two actors can simply be replaced with each other. Gazprom, is promoting a new line called "Pipeline of the South" that stretched from the Black Sea to Bulgaria and Italy and by passing through Ukraine; expands to Western Europe.

Pipeline Wars, Urasia Against USA-EU

In April 2012 one of the leaders of the German Social Democratic Party SPD, Hennig Wa chevau was selected as the Chairman of the Nabucco pipeline project, South- stream. Hungary is a former Russian project joined with the plans «South stream» of western financiers and serving Russian rivals. For the first time, Norway has surpassed Gazprom of Russia and sold 10% more gas to Europe. Azerbaijan has also entered the market and were under the control of Turkey and the EEC.

From Nabucco to TAP

New approaches to the evaluation of capitalist engineering, Trans Adriatic Pipeline, TAP altered the Nabucco 2002 project to be passed through Greece. Greece which had supplied its gas from Russia, under a deadly austerity of common market and E U, and joined the TAP.

Greek public company DEPA and DESFA (state- owned gas company) were “nationalized” and now is joint to the TAP which is running from Azerbaijan through Turkey.

Changing of Nabucco to TAP, the old estimated distance nearly 3,900 kilometers at beginning of the year 2002, passing through

Azerbaijan, Georgia and Bulgaria, were reduced significantly. Instead Nabucco 2002, the Trans Anatolian Pipeline stands against the vital artery of Russia. And in this bottleneck, Russia stands and is leading Eurasia as a rival capitalist block. Ukrainian, Syria war and supporting The Islamic regime of Iran to be armed with nuclear weapons, ballistic missiles and nuclear energy under Russian hands should be considered as a part of Eurasian policy and the Pipeline’s battles

Alexander Dugin, Eurasian’s God Father; Rasputin of Putin in Kremlin; advisor of Russians oligarchs and the teacher and counselor of Islamic Regime in Iran, Organizer and ideologist of the Islamic Republic of Iran declared in 2009:

Russia should consider war to head off Nabucco project.

"We have to topple Nabucco and partition Ukraine. Ukraine has to be divided into two vassal states. We have to always be a step ahead of our rivals. If we step back on natural gas, this obliges us to step back in other fields, too. And this is impossible to accept," Dugin pointed. ⁽⁸⁾

With the completion of the Southern Nabucco project, which was started in Azerbaijan and spans through Turkey, is expected to be operational in 2018. Western Nabucco (Nabucco / west) is the only part that remains of previous projects. The flow of gas from Azerbaijan to Turkey and transit areas of Bulgaria, Romania and Hungary expands to Austria and rest of Europe. The Trans Adriatic Pipeline (TAP) pipeline passes through Greece and Albania and the Adriatic Sea to southern Italy which is 500 kilometers shorter than the Western Nabucco.

Revision of Nabucco 2002 can be explained from both geopolitical and multilateral capital prospective. The change in Austria's OMV Company that has for years backed Nabucco affected the revision of the old project. The company BEH of Bulgaria, Romania and FTSZ Hungarian benefit as this is the gas transit countries and join to "West". The Financial Visionary of German RWE Company which had earlier backed the initial Nabucco, withdrew from old Nabucco and joined the "TAP".

Turkey - Azerbaijan Consortium, Shah Deniz II, is the main member of the Trans Adriatic Pipeline (TAP). Norwegian companies Statoil, Swiss Axpo oil and gas corporations share 25.5% of giant "Shah Deniz II", British Petroleum (BP) with 25.5% Lukoil of Russia, "National Iranian Oil Company» (NIOC) and Turkish Petroleum Corporation (TPAO) are also among other shareholders in this project..

The Giants of ASA

In parallel and linked to Nabucco, oil companies the multilateral ASA (ASA-DNO) under Bijan Mossavar Rahmani's management was founded.

Bijan Mossavar-Rahmani started his oil and gas career as founder and president of Houston-based Apache International, Inc. A former delegate to OPEC Ministerial Conferences, he served as the assistant director for international energy studies at Harvard University's Energy and the Environmental Policy Center, the Commandeur de l'Ordre National de la Côte d'Ivoire for services to the energy sector of that West African nation.

Bijan Mossavar Rahmani was the chairman of the oil company RAK in the United Arab Emirates and Chief Executive Officer DNO merged oil companies' DNA/ ASA. Norak then binds to the world oil giant. "ASA" and The Emir of Ras al-Khaimah joined together in 2012. ASA and DNO prepare 355 thousand barrels of oil daily from Kurdistan (Iraq/Mosel) and Yemen.

DNO investments in the oil company owns 55 percent, Crown (Tawke), Genel Energy has 25 percent and The Kurdistan Regional Government owns 20 percent.

Interfere with the oil companies, especially American, Erbil, capital of Iraqi Kurdistan, is now a major center for the oil accordingly.

Oil companies from around the world have taken to Kurdistan and Iraq, Kurdistan being ninth in the world in oil-producing states. Kurdistan has been the focus of the world's oil giants

Bijan Mossavar Rahmani is Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of DNO International ASA, an Oslo listed oil and Gas Company active in the Middle East and North Africa. An experienced industry executive, he serves concurrently as Chairman of RAK Petroleum Public Company

Eurasia

In competition against USA-Western blocks, the Russian oligarchs which crawled to power after the fall of state's capitalism in Russia, organized the Eurasia as a block to mobilize political and military forces against the "West" and USA, economic and political interests.

Eurasia's block, engineering the war and military coups by the help of Russian nuclear facilities, chemical weapons and other weapons which are run as Chernobyl, running the Russian's oligarch malicious purposes.

Russian oligarchs, are fueling direct action in this devastating war and support occupations in places such as Ukraine, Crimea and so on; organizing the terrorist groups, racism, nationalism and... Expanding civil war, supporting

The establishment of terrorism and Islamic fanatic groups. "The Fourth Political Theory" of Alexander Dugin ... has not the slightest concern expanding warfare and headed to fire another world war in favor of Russian Power in Kremlin palace.

Alexander Dugin in his global trips, serves as the Russian oligarch's agent and has the duty to restore emperors' power under Neo tsarism banner and remobilize a bloodthirsty Army lead by Kremlin.

For this goal Russia has established, Ukraine, Syria, Iraq and Iran... fields in the blocks. Oligarchs in Russia have been in struggle to organize Alqaeda, Hezbolla, as well as Issis "Islamic State (DAESH)" Eurasia block counts. "They are Universalist" Dugin emphasized.

Pipeline Wars, Urasia Against USA-EU

Alexander Dugin's 4th Political Theory is for the Russian Empire, and calls all reactionaries toward this block. This will allow them to take both the wide range of existing non-globalist and counter-globalist ideologies, religions, cultures, and trends. He emphasized: "It is absolutely unnecessary to shape them to transform into something unified and systematized. They can well remain local or regional but be integrated into a front of common stand against globalization and "Western Civilization's" (⁹)

As I tried to explain eurasianism is not right, nor left. It is synthesis of all ant liberal tendencies (leftist, rightist, ecological, religious and so on) united with the geopolitical analysis. Dugin emphasized (¹⁰)

"In order to combat the liberalism and globalization we should elaborate the Fourth Political Theory beyond the liberalism, Marxism and fascism. These three belong to the Modernity. They should be rejected. The Modernity is to be rejected in all its parts. The Fourth Political Theory should be based on a totally holistic approach. They are only concrete societies, there is no one abstract society consisted of the individuals. So eurasianism is holism."⁽¹¹⁾

Standing out is also the deadly weapon of recombined viruses which the Russians scientists developed for them after the breakup of the Soviet Union, and which they worked on it for 15 years in Iran. With this weapon it is easy to manipulate throughout the whole of Europe and US.

Today's rulers see the world simply as a chess board, micronized in as many fields. The fields are shaped in the manner of the need that a military which the need is always found somewhere. Like a security force if you will. In the close range of strategic waypoints and findings of minerals and oil.

The Oil oligarchs have only one goal-to ensure the security of its oil findings and its waypoints.

That is how the re-oriented to Georgia trough which it would lead to the Turkish harbor Cheihan in the black sea. All that allegedly to avoid the pipelines that Russia controls. The consequence of this pipeline is a heavy Russian intervention in Georgia, Ukraine, Syria Iraq, Iran and so on ...the Slavic people are the ones who suffer the most.

According to A.Dugin:

“This theory must address directly to geopolitics... stand against globalization and “Western Civilization’s” domination on the meta-ideological level, on the paradigmatic level of Geopolitics-2 and this moment – plurality of ideologies – is already laid in the very term “Multi-pluralism” (not only within the strategically space, but also in the field of the ideological, cultural, religious, social, and economical one).”(12)

Dugin’s alliance in the Libyan’s civil war and Gadhafi’s mass murdering, Bashar Assad are Gaddafi and their war are the battle of Eurasia.

“We Eurasianists defended Gaddafi, not because we were fans or supporters of him or his Green Book, but because it was a matter of principles. Behind the insurgency in Libya was Western hegemony, and it imposed bloody chaos. When Gaddafi fell, Western hegemony grew stronger. It was our defeat. But not the final one. This war has many episodes. We lost the battle, but not the war.”⁽¹³⁾

Syria on the other hand is of vital importance to Russia as it serves as the port at Tartus a trading outpost for Russian cargo and military ships and Russian access to the Middle East markets and a security buffer for Terrorist Islamic groups to travelling freely through Syria and Turkey, Iran, Iraq and into the Caucasus.

Dugin even named Al Qaeda and other terrorist groups like Daesh as the allies of Eurasia’s block.

” Simple conservatives and their supportive mass, for example, of the Islamic or Orthodox persuasion are unlikely to realize the necessity of alliances with the Hindus or the Chinese. This will be the play (and they are already actively playing it) of the globalists and their principle of “divide and conquer!” But the revolutionary elite, which is the elite, even within a particular traditionalist elite of society, should take the, heartfelt deep and deliberate feelings of local identity and correlate it within a total horizon of multi-polarity, and 4PT. Without the formation of such an elite the revolt against the post-modern world and the overthrow of the dictatorship of the West will not take place.”⁽¹⁴⁾

According to Dugin, all these fundamentalist and reactionary forces are labelled as as "universalists" and which fighting against globalization, are anti-capitalist, anti-liberalism, anti-communism and anti-"imperialist". They are elements to establishment of an integrated global fight. Dugin’s front is universal and unites with Daesh-Al Qaeda, Hamas, the Islamic Republic of Iran, Hizballah, Zionist and Jewish fundamentalists, fanatics, and even Turkey «Ergenekon».

Dugin's argues in favor of the coalition of the "holy terror":

“Today, we invite all who insist on the worth of the specific values of non-Western civilizations, and where there other forms of values exist ...”⁽¹⁵⁾

Alexander-Dugin-global terrorism

“It cannot fight solely under the banner of Orthodox Christianity...

Russia is now one of many participants in this global struggle, and cannot fight this fight alone. We need to unite all the forces that are opposed to Western norms and its economic system. So we need to make alliances with all the Leftist social and political movements that challenge the status quo of liberal capitalism.

We should likewise ally ourselves with all identitarian forces in any culture that refuse globalism for cultural reasons. From this perspective, Islamic movements, Hindu movements, or nationalist movements from all over the world should also be regarded as allies. Hindus, Buddhists, Christians, and pagan identitarians in Europe, America, or Latin America, or other types of cultures, should all form a common front. The idea is to unite all of them, against the single enemy and the singular evil for a multiplicity of concepts of what is good...”⁽¹⁶⁾

According to Dugins, Issis, and all other Islamic and terrorist forces have a common enemy and a common goal:

“Jihadis are universalists, just as secular Westerners who seek globalization are. But they are not the same, because the Western project seeks to dominate all the others and impose its hegemony everywhere. It attacks us directly every day through the global media, fashions, by setting examples for youth, and so on. We are submerged in this global cultural hegemony. Salafist universalism is a kind of marginal alternative. They should not be thought of in the same way as those who seek globalization. They also fight against our enemy. We don't like any Universalists, but there are Universalists who attack us today and win, and there are also non-conformist universalists who are fighting against the hegemony of the Western, liberal universalists, and therefore they are tactical friends for the time being. Before their project of a global Islamic state can be realized, we will have many battles and conflicts. And global liberal domination is a fact. We therefore invite everybody to fight alongside us against this hegemony, this status quo. I prefer to discuss what is the reality at present, rather than what may exist in the future. All those who oppose liberal hegemony are our friends for the moment. This is not morality, it is strategy. Carl Schmitt¹⁷ said that politics begins by distinguishing between friends and enemies. There are no eternal friends and no eternal enemies. We are struggling against the existing universal hegemony.”⁽¹⁸⁾

Dugin was not created overnight.. He is the creation of corrupted capitalist relationships, the same as Hamas in Gaza and Islamic Jihad supporters, Islamic forces in Iran, Zionism etcetera

¹⁷ Schmitt joined (11 July 1888 – 7 April 1985) the Nazi Party on 1 May 1933.[12] Within days of joining the party, Schmitt was party to the burning of books by Jewish authors, rejoicing in the burning of "un-German" and "anti-German" material, and calling for a much more extensive purge, to include works by authors influenced by Jewish ideas.[13] In July he was appointed State Councilor for Prussia (Preußischer Staatsrat) by Hermann Göring and became the president of the Vereinigung nationalsozialistischer Juristen ("Union of National-Socialist Jurists") in November. He also replaced Hermann Heller as professor at the University of Berlin[14] (a position he held until the end of World War II). We therefore Dugin argues accordingly to invite everybody to fight alongside oligarchs, Army.

“Alongside us against this hegemony, this status quo. I prefer to discuss what is the reality at present, rather than what may exist in the future. « Doctor of philosophy and political science professor at Moscow State University Alexander Dugin (Lamanovsaf) and leader of the Russian Eurasia, doctor Seyed Mostafa Mohaghegh Damad, doctor Gholam Hossein Ebrahimi Dnani, doctor Gholamreza Avani Chairman and members of the Academy of Islamic Sciences and the member of the board of the Institute of Philosophy and science, lady doctor Shaheen Awani ... Dugin, the "philosopher" of the Islamic Republic of Iran as commander in chief of the Tsesar's army appeared to announce:

"Our army, Tbilisi, Georgia capital city and all this country, and perhaps the Ukraine and the Crimean Peninsula, which historically belongs to Russia will occupy." (²⁸)

Now the project of the establishment of neo-tesarism is the project of Kremlin's "Empire".

Establishment of Neo-tesarism, the dream of rebuilding the ancient «empire» always have been in mind of rulers and the present Russian bourgeoisie and after the failure of "Soviets socialism" in the early 1920s and with termination of the Cold War and the collapse of "state capitalism," block.

" after the epoch? of Russian state capitalism, Polar restoration of capitalism against capitalism of the "West, has been the Kremlin Eurasians Policy.

This pole, especially after V. Putin seized the power in the second half of 2000 in Russia has been under reconstruction.

While the era of Boris Yeltsin, the East block countries, the Friedman School of shock therapy, was the dominant economic neoliberalism, this time Neo-tesarism with the chanting anti-liberalism and anti-socialist raised the ideology and the idea of restoring a Russian imperium has taken hold as a cornerstone for Russian foreign policy.

At present, the economic - Political zone especially widespread in both Europe and Asia, is organizing the destructive pole of economic, political and military this time to compete with the other pole of global capitalism, under the ideological banner of Neo- tsesarism of Russian nuclear power.

The Eurasian's thesis, by leadership of the most famous leader and ideologue of Alexander Dugin, as a demagogue propagandist, aims to mobilize the regional petit-governments of continents in competence against the rivals under the fascistic - vulgarity banner of "against" capitalism, liberalism, socialism.

Eurasia is trying to mobilize all reactionary forces under the Dugin's Fourth Political Theory, and burrow into fundamentalisms grave, and by the Ancient Mohamedians Islamic bombs side by side with the theocratic Islam and the Islamic "Revolutionary Guards" in Iran and everywhere,, rebuild another North Korean mafias- project leads by Russia to achieve the political military wills from the current global neoliberal free market.

On 10 October 2014, Dugin said, "Only after restoring the Greater Russia that is the Eurasian Union, we can become a credible global player. Now these processes slowed down very much. The Ukrainian maiden was the response of the West to the advance of the Russian integration." [²⁹]

Eurasianists considered Peter the Great—who tried to Europeanize Russia in the eighteenth century—an enemy and a traitor.

Both sides of poles, the USA-EU, Europe on one hand and on the other hand, the Russian leadership line up. Ukraine was one of the areas that the moment of separation from the Russian bloc and the "Orange Revolution", and concord with the Europe Union and the West has been Dugin/putin's cabbalism center.

According to Dugin's propaganda:

“Russia must unite around itself all the continental powers, including Germany, Central and Eastern Europe, the former Soviet republics, Turkey, Iran, and Korea, into grand Eurasian Union strong enough to defeat the West. The next step, he proclaims, is military intervention in eastern Ukraine, which he regularly calls Novorossiya (New Russia). It is a name that has also been used by President Putin.”⁽³⁰⁾

Alexander Dugin called for the annexation of Crimea as far back as 2008, during Russia's war with Georgia.

Before war broke out between Russia and Georgia in 2008, Dugin visited South Ossetia and predicted, "Our troops will occupy the Georgian capital Tbilisi, the entire country, and perhaps even Ukraine and the Crimean Peninsula, which is historically part of Russia, anyway."⁽³¹⁾

Dugin Added:

“Russia should "not stop at liberating South Ossetia but should move further," and "we have to do something similar in Ukraine."^[32]

In September 2008, after the Russian-Georgian war, he did not hide his anger to Putin, who "dared not drop the other shoe" and "restore the Empire."^[33]

Dugin travelled to the disputed region of South Ossetia, where he was photographed with a rocket launcher.

Back then, he believed that Russia should have taken its troops all the way to the Georgian capital, Tbilisi. Russia's Army should have then overthrown President Mikheil Saakashvili and moved to take over Crimea, "which is part of Russia anyway"⁽³⁴⁾

“If we take into account the specifically geopolitical and occult doctrines of the Atlantic pole, it becomes completely clear why “leftist” subversive movements were so much encouraged by the Anglo-Saxon powers in continental European and Eurasian countries, while in England, and especially in America, “communists” and “social-democrats” constitute an insignificant percentage. For the Atlantis lobby, “leftists” have always been the fifth column in Eurasia.”⁽³⁵⁾

Dugin also advocates for a Russo-Arab Alliance.[32]

“In principle, Eurasia and our space, the heartland Russia, remain the staging area of a new anti-bourgeois, anti-American revolution. ... The new Eurasian empire will be constructed on the Capitalism in crisis, has encroached into the existence and lifeline of existence of neglected people, as a part of universe as they are not a part of existence.

Going to plunder.

Multilateral capitals in both blocks, Eurasia in one side , and Europe -USA, in the other side in competition with each other as they have the working class and all the exploitations as their cannon fodder who are not considered as human being.
